(b) if so, the facts thereof;

(c) the total numbers and names of such societies to whom the land have not been allotted; and

(d) the time by which the applications are likely to be cleared by DDA?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT & POVERTY ALLEVIATION(SHRI PON RADHAKR)

(a)to(d): The Delhi Development Authority has reported that after CBI raid in March, 2003 66 applications have been received byit from various cultural and welfare societies. All such applications are processed for the allotment of land in accordance with the laid down policy/procedure. Allotment of land to such societies is considered from time to time by Institutional Allotment Committee on completion of codal formalities subject to the availability of the land.
